In the Summer of 1845 this House commenced wholesaleing W.tches and Jewelry at prices cheapor than the like were sold in the wholesale jobbing stores of New York.

The great desire of the Proprietor was then, and has been ever since, to divert the current of trade that was flowing into the Atlantic cities from the Western and South-western States, and compel it to erminate in Cincinnati. There was a period when New York stood in a position more advantageous than this city as a depot for the manufactured goods both of Europe and this country; but science and art have now given Cincinnati the means of attaining, if she will, as proud an elevation in Trade and tance annihilated, so that a tradesman here can for ewelry, who may reside, as most of the manu-Jersey, Rhode Island or Massachusetts, and before evening receive a reply, and in a few hours after the burgh, and hopes still to realize the same demon- goods are made they will be at his door. The reader may now say that he can perceive no arthly rea

In all cases where Mitchell's Indian Rheumatic

Extract, fails to give retief in Rheumatism, Nouralgia, or Gont, when properly applied. A short space of seven months, is of itself sufficient proof of its efficacy, and the testimonials of some of the most respectable citizens and Physicians of Louisville, who have used it (see Circulars) cannot fail to convince the most sceptical of the virtues of this unequalled medicine.

Dr. H M. Weatherford, of Louisville, says: " have used Mitchell's Indian Extract with more benefit to myself, than any, or all the remedies I have ever made trial of in the course of forty-seven years, during which time I have labored under Rheumatism. I am now refleved of all pain."
Maj. Thomas M. Hicks, al o of Louisville, says: "In less than three days I was relieved of the most excrutiating pains, and my limbs were all measurably restored to their natural feeling.
